

David Knox

David Knox has served on the Williamsville School Board since 1976. He has been a fundamental piece in the success of the district over the past 35 years. Dave has his degree in Agricultural Education and Economics from the University of Wisconsin. He has farmed in Williamsville for most of his life and is a retired coal miner. Dave and his wife Gladys have 4 children, 8 grandchildren and 21 foster children.