

Eric Long

Eric and his wife, Stephanie, live in Sherman with their two children, Ashley and Jacob. Ashley is in Mr. Byer's Third Grade class at SES, and Jacob is in Ms. Armour's Kindergarten class.

Eric graduated from the University of Illinois, College of Business, in 1993 with a degree in Finance. He then attended Southern Illinois University, School of Law, from where he graduated Summa Cum Laude in 1997.

Following law school, Eric worked in a law firm in Chicago, representing a number of financial clients. While there, Eric investigated and pursued corporate misconduct, prosecuted private actions for securities fraud, and handled various employment and labor matters.

Eric joined the United States Department of Justice in 2002 as an Assistant United States Attorney. Since joining the Department of Justice, Eric has served as the Criminal and Civil Healthcare Fraud Coordinator, the International and National Security Coordinator, and the Deputy Anti-Terrorism Coordinator. In each of these positions, Eric oversees the investigation and prosecution, both criminally and civilly, of a variety of federal financial crimes, including mail fraud, securities fraud, healthcare fraud, terrorism, and money laundering. Eric is currently serving as the Chief of the Civil Division in the Central District of Illinois.
