Thank you to all participants, parents, staff, and sponsors who made this event happen. The Kumler Food Pantry will receive a check for $1,200 from Williamsville Junior High!! Great Work!

Too Good for Drugs: Coach Moss's 6th grade classes will report to "Too good for Drugs" class today.

Literary Team: Contest is fast approaching! On Saturday, you will be able to celebrate all of your hard work over the past six weeks. With the Veteran's Day holiday on Wednesday, we will have practice before and after school on Friday. Team members are still expected to practice two hours this week.

We will be distributing information about bus time, performance times, a map to Rochester Intermediate School for parents, and expectations for dress during practices this week. If you will not be attending practice until later in the week, you can stop by Mrs. Henderson's in wrap-up to pick up the information.

Any JH Student: We need help in the concession stand on December 3. Please let the office know if you can help out.
