Miscellaneous

Magazine Turn In: We'll have one more turn in day!!! Next Tuesday, September 25 will be the final chance to submit orders.

*Please note, tumbler orders need to go on the tumbler forms and magazines on the magazine forms. If you're in need of extra of either of these forms, please come and grab them in the office.

Lunch Envelopes: Reminding ALL students to please complete your lunch envelope with your full name. First and last. Thank you.

WJHS Homework Policy: Just a reminder about our new homework collection policy for students who stay home from school sick. We don't collect homework for you on the first day. If you're sick more than one day, we will gather it. A request must be made by noon on the given day and homework will be ready for pick up after school.

WHS Homecoming Parade News: The date of the parade is Sunday, September 30. The lineup will start at 3:00 and the parade will kick off at 4:00. We will follow the same route as previous years - taking off from the High School lots, winding through town and ending up behind WJHS.

Fine Arts

Art Club: Any student interested in Art Club should come to the art room during wrap-up today for a meeting. Check in with wrap-up teachers first.

Athletics

Baseball: The guys will play Chatham on Saturday in the sectional championship. Good luck!

HAVE A GREAT DAY!
