Next Week is National Prevention Week: Make sure you listen to the announcements each day next week for important information about Prevention Week. There will be contests and special activities going on that you won't want to miss!

Dedication: On May 15, at 7:00 p.m., a tree and bench will be dedicated at the Sherman Village Park in memory of Adam Clack. The ceremony will also include music, a few speeches, and a lantern launch.

Life Skills: Students in Life Skills class should bring a book or homework to work on during class today.

Beta Club: Members should turn in their hours forms to the office as soon as possible. The deadline was last Friday. A meeting for all members will be held tomorrow during wrap up in the cafeteria to discuss end of the year events and celebration.

1st Day School Supplies: Once again the school has set up an account with 1st Day School Supplies. You can go online and order your school supplies for next year for your grade level classes. Deadline to order is June 30. Supplies will be delivered to the school and available for pick up on locker day before the school year begins. (August 16) www.1stDaySchoolSupplies.com is the website. You'll need to enter the school's zip code, 62693

Fine Arts

New Berlin Art Fair Results: Wow! Congratulations to our many talented 6-8th grade artists who took 65 ribbons total, including 1st places in 12 of the 20 categories. Our artists swept all of the ribbons in 5 of the categories including drawing figure/portrait, sculpture, pottery, printmaking, and mixed-media. The hard work, creativity and talent of our students is exciting and impressive to see on display, and I could not be more proud of them. Please check out the displays in the fine arts entryway.

~Eight grader, Molly Fawns, received 6 ribbons including a 1st in still-life drawing and one of the five Best of Show ribbons for a drawing of her aunt's dog. Also, Ellie Mitts received an impressive 6 ribbons along with Claire Larkin with 5, Noel Albers and Madi Ausmus with 4, and Lillie Scott and Amelia Achas with 3.
