

Maranatha Andrews

October Student of the Month

Williamsville High School is pleased to announce that senior Maranatha Andrews has been selected as the October Student of the Month. Maranatha was selected by the senior class sponsors on the basis of academic performance, extra-curricular participation, and personal traits. She will receive a $100 cash award from the Williamsville State Bank and will also be eligible for Student of the Year.

Maranatha is a high honor roll student and is actively involved in Student Council and Youth & Government at Williamsville High School. Maranatha is a four year member of the WHS Concert Band in the flute and woodwind section. Throughout the years, she has helped the band earn high scores at ILMEA and Solo & Ensemble competitions.

Outside of Williamsville High School, Maranatha has completed her CNA and BLS for healthcare providers training. Maranatha currently is enhancing her organization and customer service skills by working part-time at Memorial Medical Center in the food service department.

Maranatha has volunteered at the Williamsville Teen Gift and Community Food Drive, the Sherman Fall Festival and at Zoolie Ghoulie at the Henson Robinson Zoo.

Maranatha plans to attend the University of Pittsburgh, pursuing a doctorate degree while majoring in nursing.

Congratulations to Maranatha and her parents, Donnie and Jennifer Andrews of Springfield!
