

Ally Karras

November Student of the Month

Williamsville High School is pleased to announce that senior Ally Karras has been selected as the November Student of the Month. Ally was selected by the senior class sponsors on the basis of academic performance, extra-curricular participation, and personal traits. She will receive a $100 cash award from the Williamsville State Bank and will also be eligible for Student of the Year.

Ally is consistently listed on the high honor roll and is involved in a number of extracurricular activities at Williamsville High School including: Student Council, FCCLA, Captains' Council, and National Honor Society. During her Junior and Senior years, Ally was a member of the WHS Homecoming Court and is currently the 2016 Homecoming Queen. Based on outstanding character attributes, she was chosen by WHS teachers to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Citizenship Award.

For the past four years, Ally has proven to be an outstanding student and athlete. Ally is a four year member of the Lady Bullets volleyball and soccer teams. During her tenure, Ally strongly contributed to the volleyball team making it to the Elite 8. She was also on the highly competitive Lady Bullets soccer team that participated in the Final Four in state competition last year.

Ally has volunteered time at the WHS Teen Food and Gift Drive, the Summer Bridges program at Sherman Elementary, the WJHS Volleyball Camp, Williamsville's K-8 Soccer Camp, the Henson Robinson Zoo's Indian Summer Fest, and at various fundraisers at her church.

Ally plans to attend University of Iowa, majoring in Biomedical Engineering.

Congratulations to Ally and her parents, Peter & Vicki Karras of Sherman!
